New Animal Hospital Opens in Peachtree Corners

PEACHTREE CORNERS, GA, April 13, 2015 – Pet owners looking for veterinary care for their cats, dogs and exotic pets now have a new option.

Spalding Animal Hospital, owned by the husband-wife team of Doctors Matt and Paola Steyling, have opened a full service animal hospital at 105 Technology Parkway. The 8,000 square-foot facility is located across from the Wesleyan School entrance on Spalding Drive.

Also part of the team, is Dr. Shalini Latchman, who works with the Steylings to provide veterinary care. The new facility offers a variety of services that include preventative health care, surgery, juvenile and geriatric care, pet grooming and boarding.

“We’re happy to welcome Spalding Animal Hospital to our city,” said Mayor Mike Mason during a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Saturday, April 11. “I know Peachtree Corners’ pet owners will appreciate the services provided by this new facility.”

The animal hospital also offers services such as curbside drop off and pick up, option to have your pet’s prescription medications mailed to your home and even offers a special “Pet Taxi” service should you be unable to bring your pet in yourself.

“I want to thank everyone for coming today to help us celebrate our grand opening,” said Dr. Paola Steyling. “Please feel free to stop by for a visit and a tour of our new facilities.”

Spalding Animal Clinic is also a licensed wildlife rehabilitator and able to take in injured wildlife.

The facility’s hours of operation are Monday from 7:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m., Tuesday through Friday from 8 a.m. – 6 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., telephone: 770-558-4347.
